Raoul Wallenberg Unit

- Born in Sweden in 1912
- 1931: studied Architecture at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, USA, where he learned to speak English, German and French.
- 1935: received a Bachelor of Science degree.
- Worked in Cape Town, South Africa, for a Swedish construction materials company.
- 1935/56: employed by Holland Bank, Halls, Israel.
- 1936: returned to Sweden to work for an export-import company trading between Stockholm and central Europe, owned by a Hungarian Jew, Karlman Lauer.
- 1944: on his travels regularly as a trusted representative owner and Institutional Director of the company.
- 9 July 1944: Wallenberg travelled to Budapest as the First Secretary to the Swedish legation in Budapest (the A Christian diplomat, in a six-month period, he saved 100,000 Jewish lives from the Nazis. He issued special Swedish protective passports (Green, Schuman, Hungarian and Swiss). He opened Jewish homes, hospitals, orphanages and schools. He rescued Jews from sealed deportation trains and, ultimately, in one night, saved 70,000 Jews by having Eichmann's final orders to hand 4 Jewish ghettos, unacknowledged.
- Arrested in January 1945 by Russian troops, his whereabouts have remained a mystery.
- 1981: named an Honorary Citizen of the USA.
- 1985: named First Honorary Citizen by Canada.
- 1986: named First Honorary Citizen by Israel.
- Ten statues have been issued in honour of Raoul Wallenberg: Israel (1987), Argentina (1988), the United States (1997), and Uruguay (2000).

Only 1000 numbered sheets have been printed.
